Press release on Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov's telephone conversations with Foreign Minister of Azerbaijan Jeyhun Bayramov and Foreign Minister of Armenia Zohrab Mnatsakanyan

On October 17, Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov had telephone conversations with Minister of Foreign Affairs of Azerbaijan Jeyhun Bayramov and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Armenia Zohrab Mnatsakanyan.

The ministers discussed the situation in the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict zone.

Sergey Lavrov focused on the continuing relevance of the Statement of the Presidents of the Russian Federation, the United States of America and the French Republic on Nagorno-Karabakh of October 1, 2020.

The ministers stressed the need for a strict compliance with the Moscow Statement of the ministers of foreign affairs of the Russian Federation, the Republic of Azerbaijan, and the Republic of Armenia of October 10, which provides for a humanitarian ceasefire.

They also reaffirmed the importance of the Moscow agreement on the launching of substantive talks aimed at reaching an early peace settlement based on the fundamental principles and mediated by the OSCE Minsk Group co-chairs.
